

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2008

Pearl to Open November 14th

Pearl Bar & Dining will open in Lincoln Square on November 14th, in their newly renovated location where Trader Vic's previously occupied.

The 200-seat, 7,800 sq ft restaurant and bar will bring a much needed urban and trendy setting; complete with a bar, bistro tables, a lounge area with low sofas and tables, and a raised, sheer-veiled seating option for small parties. Pearl's interior will focus on contemporary design elements. You'll first notice the large "teardrop glass sculpture" in the front entry, along with other fashionable art.

The locally owned restaurant has created a menu filled with fresh Northwest-inspired foods, featuring dishes like: Salmon Sashimi with ginger and hot sesame oil, Dungeness Crab Cake with Yakima Orchards Gala apple, Braised Mishima Ranch boneless Wagyu short ribs, Flat Iron Crispy Chicken, along with many other tasty offerings.

Pearl will be open for lunch and dinner and will offer a daily happy hour from 4:30 - 6:30pm. In addition, Pearl will be offering a (much needed) weekend brunch!

Posted by Michael at 8:00 AM

<http://beat.downtownbellevue.com/2008/10/pearl-to-open-november-14th.html>